

“Peace is a continuous active process”

Let us visualize and enhance Alpe Adria!

The Panathlon Clubs of Kärnten, Friuli Venezia Giulia and Slovenija signed at GO!2025 – European Capital of Culture 2025 – their commitment to promote concrete common initiatives.

United in the Sport”, they competition of for the representation of those who and continue construction idea “Alpe Adria launch a ideas and proposals symbolic of the tireless work have contributed to contribute to the of an extraordinary coexistence, concretely embodying the idea of Europe on Mount “Dreiländereck, Tromaeja, Tre Confini (Forno).”

It is the place where three great European lineages meet, which from a dividing border has become a point of encounter, collaboration and shared vision.

The competition is an invitation to remember that “peace is an active process”, to which sport and community culture, which after a tragic past of wars and suffering, contribute daily, in the mutual respect of their differences and peculiarities.

The competition – addressed to the school world but also open to cultural and sports associations, artists, architects, designers and also to individual citizens – will collect and award design proposals for the creation of a representation of the role of sport and culture in the construction of peaceful coexistence.

The period coincides with anniversaries for the peoples of “Alpe-Adria” and Europe.

It was announced at GO!2025, the year of the 45th anniversary of the birth of SKI TOUR3, the first sporting event that for one day erased the borders between Austria, Italy and Slovenia; the 40th anniversary of the signing of the joint bid proposal for the Winter Olympic Games by the mayors of Villach, Jesenice and Tarvisio, supported by the President of the Austrian Olympic Committee, Kurt Heller; the 30th anniversary of the first bid for the Winter Olympic Games “Without Borders” accepted by the IOC.

It will conclude in 2028: 80 years since the end of the Second World War; 40 years since the signing of the Schengen Agreement and the creation of the EU flag; 30 years since Austria’s entry and 21 years since Slovenia’s entry into the EU.
